IMPORTANT NOTICE

This Annexure A forms an integral and inseparable part of the International Commission Agreement and shall survive completion, termination, expiration, renewal, rollover, amendment, extension, replacement, or substitution of the Main Agreement and/or underlying commercial Transaction(s). The obligations herein are irrevocable, unconditional, continuing, and legally binding upon the Parties, their successors, assigns, affiliates, subsidiaries, nominees, agents, representatives, and beneficiaries.

1. PURPOSE

The purpose of this Annexure is to establish an irrevocable fee protection mechanism ensuring that all commissions, fees, remunerations, and intermediary compensations due to the Agent, Broker, Facilitator, Intermediary, Introducer, or Beneficiary are fully protected and paid in accordance with internationally accepted trade and banking practices including applicable ICC Rules.

2. IRREVOCABLE PAYMENT UNDERTAKING

The Principal hereby irrevocably, unconditionally, and absolutely undertakes to pay the Agent the agreed Commission for all Transaction(s) concluded directly or indirectly as a result of the Agent's introduction, facilitation, negotiation, assistance, participation, or involvement. Such payment obligation shall remain enforceable regardless of change in transaction structure, replacement of parties, use of affiliates or nominees, assignment of contract, change of commodity, destination, vessel, banking arrangements, amendment to SPA or underlying agreements, corporate restructuring, termination of intermediary relationships, or direct dealings between parties introduced by the Agent.

3. ICC RULES & INTERNATIONAL BANKING STANDARDS

The Parties expressly agree that all payments, banking instruments, trade finance mechanisms, and obligations arising under this Annexure shall be interpreted and implemented in accordance with internationally recognized ICC standards including ICC UCP 600, ICC URDG 758, ICC ISP98, ICC Incoterms® (latest edition), ICC eRules, ICC Rules of Arbitration, ICC Banking Commission Opinions and Guidelines, ICC Anti-Corruption Clause, and ICC Model International Sale Contract principles where applicable.

4. FEE PROTECTION OBLIGATION

4.1 Earned Commission. Commission shall be deemed fully earned immediately upon successful introduction of Buyer and Seller; execution of LOI, ICPO, FCO, SPA, MOU, Term Sheet, or Contract; issuance of banking instruments; receipt of payment by Principal; shipment commencement; or any commercial benefit derived from the introduced relationship.

4.2 No Avoidance. The Principal shall not avoid payment of Commission by changing company names, using affiliated entities, utilizing subsidiaries or holding companies, appointing alternative intermediaries, re-routing transactions, splitting contracts, altering invoice structures, or using third-party payment structures.

4.3 Automatic Continuity. Fee protection shall automatically extend to renewals, extensions, rollovers, repeat shipments, spot contracts, framework agreements, additional quantities, addendums, side agreements, and future contracts between introduced parties.

5. PAYMENT MECHANISM

5.1 Timing. Commission payments shall be made simultaneously with receipt of commercial proceeds, on each shipment, on each tranche/payment received, without delay, deduction, withholding, or set-off.

5.2 Currency. All payments shall be made in freely transferable currency unless otherwise agreed.

5.3 Banking Method. MT103, SWIFT Wire Transfer, Escrow, Documentary Credit, automated split-payment structures, or blockchain-based payment systems where lawful.
